ART news!

You may have already noticed that in the centre of town many of the bollards are having a face-lift. Different organisations and groups within Faringdon have been invited to contribute artwork and Faringdon Infant School has been lucky enough to be part of this project. A child from each class was selected at random to represent their group and they made creative handprints for the school design. Our work was hugely supported by local artist Abigail Brown and is based on Lord Berners' colourful birds we see in Faringdon. There is an official launch being held on Saturday 14th May 11am-1pm with music and celebrations. We hope many of you will be able to come along and enjoy the launch and find where the school bollard is within the community.
